

Crops are changing really fast in the area and could use moisture, as there was no precipitation recorded at either farm for the week.

Activities:

Hay was baled and hauled in at Armstrong

Randy continues harvesting produce in the garden

Continue work on harvest equipment

Work on FIMS bunks at cattle barn

Dan winterized spray equipment

John checked into another company for pricing of curtain at cattle barn

Technician was here working on some software issues with the FIMS bunks

Preparation for Wyffel's Field day to be held this Wednesday the 13th. Ag students from area schools will be coming to learn about different projects at the farm.

Randy plowed an organic area at Neely-Kinyon in preparation for Sudan grass next spring

Working with NRCS on soil pit locations for upcoming soil judging contest on the 26th